

Grade: 2	Subject(s): Science	Planning Team: Kim (CT2), Shelley, Jessica (PA), Raime (P), Kendra (DI)
-----------------	--------------------------------	--

Our Guiding Unit Question: How does water impact living things in the environment?	Kid Friendly Question: What is water ? Why is water important to living things ?
--	--

Learning Outcome: Students investigate characteristics of water and the importance of water to living things in the environment.	Kid friendly Learning Outcome: I can investigate water I know that water is important to living things and the environment
--	--

	Kid Friendly Literacy & Numeracy Competencies We can collect data We can communicate our learning We can use strategies to help us understand text
--	--

Cross Curricular Competency	We can be cultural and global citizens
------------------------------------	---

Important vocabulary to know and use:

Water Environment Living things	Citizens Strategies communicate	Investigate Collect data Text
---------------------------------------	---------------------------------------	-------------------------------------